

BILL DAGGETT- JUNE 9, 2016 AM SESSION
New Jersey Association of Federal Program Administrators
Spring Conference
Harrah's Resort, Atlantic City

BILL DAGGETT

- PRESIDENT: INT'L CENTER FOR LEADERS IN ED.
- USA TODAY EDUCATION ADVISORY BOARD
- APPLICATION MODEL & RIGOR/RELEVANCE FRAMEWORK

Bill Daggett, Ed.D., Founder and Chairman of the International Center for Leadership in Education, is recognized worldwide for his proven ability to move preK-12 education systems towards more rigorous and relevant skills and knowledge for all students. He has assisted a number of states and hundreds of school districts with their school improvement initiatives. Dr. Daggett has also collaborated with education ministries in several countries and with the Council of Chief State School Officers, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, the National Governors Association, and many other national organizations. He serves on several advisory boards, including:

- NASA Education Advisory Board – 2008 to present
- USA Today (national newspaper) Education Advisory Board

Before founding the International Center for Leadership in Education in 1991, Dr. Daggett was a teacher and administrator at the secondary and postsecondary levels and a director with the New York State Education Department, where he spearheaded restructuring initiatives to focus the state's education system on the skills and knowledge students need in a technological, information-based society.

Dr. Daggett is the creator of the Application Model and Rigor/Relevance Framework™, a practical planning and instructional tool for determining the relevance of curriculum and assessment to real-world situations. Dr. Daggett's Rigor/Relevance Framework has become a cornerstone of many school reform efforts throughout the United States.

Dr. Daggett is the author of numerous books about learning and education, textbooks and research studies, reports, and journal articles.

Dr. Daggett has spoken to hundreds of thousands of educators and education stakeholders in all 50 states. His enlightening, entertaining, and motivating messages have helped his listeners to look at education differently by challenging their assumptions about the purposes, benefits, and effectiveness of American schools. Dr. Daggett inspires his audiences both to embrace what is best about our education system and to make the changes necessary to meet the needs of all students in the 21st century. Dr. Daggett has been recognized as a distinguished alumnus by both Temple University and the State University of New York at Albany. Dr. Daggett has a special commitment to individuals with disabilities. He and his wife, Bonnie, volunteer their time and lend their support to Wildwood Programs in upstate New York. Wildwood serves the needs of people of all ages who, like their daughter, Audrey, have neurological impairments/learning disabilities or autism, by enabling them to realize their very best talents and dreams.

VITO BORRELLO-JUNE 9, 2016 PM SESSION

Executive Director

National Association for Family, School, and Community Engagement

Vito Borrello is the first Executive Director for the National Association for Family, School, and Community Engagement (NAFSCE), effective September 2014. Prior to his new position, Mr. Borrello served as the nineteen year president of EPIC – Every Person Influences Children, a national organization providing parenting education, family engagement in education, and character education programs to help families, schools and communities raise children to become responsible and capable adults. EPIC’s programs have been implemented in 16 states and Singapore. Recent previous national roles include membership on the National Family, School and Community Engagement Working Group (now NAFSCE’s Policy Council); and two completed terms as an At-Large Board Member for National PTA, where he also served on committees for finance, resource development, and strategic planning. Mr. Borrello currently serves on National PTA’s Legislation Committee. He is co-founder and Chairman Emeritus for the NY State Family Engagement Coalition. Prior to his NAFSCE appointment, Mr. Borrello was Chairman of the NY State PTA Urban Initiatives Task Force, Steering Committee member of the NY State Parenting Education Partnership, and a past appointee to NY State Education Department workgroups for Teacher Standards, Striving Readers, and Safe Schools. In his home community of Western New York, Mr. Borrello is a Board Member for Buffalo's Read to Succeed literacy initiative, and the State University of NY at Buffalo's Alberti Center for Bullying Abuse Prevention; and immediate past Chairman for the Care Management Coalition of Western New York. He is a 2009 graduate of the Health Foundation for Western and Central New York Fellowship program and a 1998 graduate of Leadership Buffalo. Mr. Borrello has a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education from Wittenberg University and resides in East Amherst, New York with his wife, Maria, and daughters, Marisa and Samantha. He commutes to the NAFSCE offices located in Bethesda, Maryland.

DR. KAREN CAMPBELL-JUNE 9, 2016 PM SESSION

Director

NJDOE, Office of Supplemental Educational Programs

Dr. Campbell will conduct a presentation on the new "Every Student Succeeds Act" and what it means for New Jersey schools in FY2017. Following the presentation, the Office of Supplemental Educational Programs will celebrate New Jersey's Title I Reward Schools.